CHAMPIONS

Being a champion can have many meanings, but ultimately, a champion is someone who fiercely defends a cause.
Champions are those who fight to achieve their dreams, no matter where they are.
This framework shows Argentina's champions in their roles and in life.

CHAMPIONS IN ENVIRONMENTAL PRESERVATION

MERCOSUR 2019

Environment - Anteater

2021 | Edition 20,000 copies of each design | Stamps Size 67 x 28 mm | Printing Process offset
Denomination 2 stamps of $70 (national letter up to 20 g.) | Date of issue May 31st

Mercosur logo and metallic ink details on both stamps.
Stamp 1: photograph of giant anteater in Esteros del Ibera, Province of Corrientes
Stamp 2: baby giant anteater on the back of the mother, Esteros del Ibera, Province of Corrientes.

Esteros del Ibera: an extensive wetland that serves as a refuge for threatened species. The giant anteater is one of the most striking and peculiar mammals in Argentina and the largest living species of the Myrmecophagidae family.*
Because it has only one young per year, this animal is very sensitive to human persecution and the loss of its natural habitat, which is why it is considered a vulnerable species to extinction in Argentina.

MERCOSUR 2021

Beneficial insects and their importance in ecosystem services

2022 | Edition 20,000 copies of each design | Stamps Size 44 x 34 mm | Printing Process offset

They were heroes who had been on the verge of losing their lives for carrying out their scientific and humanitarian work.
This event was so far-reaching that the existence of the Antarctic continent was popularly viewed in our country and internationally. It meant a demonstration of Argentina's scientific and naval (search and rescue) capacity and laid the foundations for international scientific exploration of Antarctica.
